

INSTRUCTIONS:

Section I. Personal Information

(All sections must be completed, unless exempt from items listed below)

In what subject area do you plan to study/major? This information is required and will appear on your I-20/DS-2019. As well, consular officials may ask you about your course of study, so be sure that this area accurately reflects your academic interests (i.e., Biology, Mathematics, Environmental Science, etc.).

If you are currently in the U.S., what is your visa status? Please indicate whether this is an F-1, H-4, R-2 or any other type of non-immigrant visa. *Students studying in the U.S. must submit photocopies of their current I-20/DS-2019 and I-94 documents with their application form.

Section II. Address Information

Permanent Address. Your permanent address must be a non-U.S. address in order for an I-20/DS-2019 to be issued to you.

Issuance of Documents. The I-20/DS-2019 document will be sent to the student's personal e-mail address by a designated school official (DSO).

Section III. Source & Amount of Funding

According to USCIS regulations, the international student advisor is required to receive and evaluate evidence of financial support to verify that students will be able to sufficiently cover the costs of their education. As a result, original documents or certified copies/letters must be provided by banks, sponsoring agencies, etc., as necessary to confirm funding sources. The amounts provided must be equal to or greater than the estimated total cost of attendance for 2026-2027.

Source of Funds for 2026-2027. You must provide exact amounts for the year 2026-2027.

University of the Ozarks Financial Aid. You will need a copy of your University of the Ozarks Financial Aid award letter to complete this section.

Your Personal Funds. You must provide a bank statement in U.S. dollars or a certified letter (with an English translation, if needed) for your personal income earned from employment, etc. that will be applied to the costs of your education. The amount that you provide on this form should be the amount you are contributing to the cost of your education (if any). Bank statements must show the numeric value of liquid funds available, name of the account holder, date of the statement, and bank letterhead/official stamp. Bank Statements must not be older than 6 months from the time you submit this form. Bank statements should be equal to, at a minimum, the personal contribution amount that you list on the form at the time it is submitted. The amount you provide on this form should be the amount you plan to have available at the time you travel to the U.S. to pursue your studies.

Family/Relative Funds. You must provide a bank statement, in U.S. Dollars, or certified letter (with an English translation, if needed) for your family/relative's personal income earned from employment, etc. that will be applied to the costs of your education. The amount that you provide on this form should be the amount you are contributing to the cost of the student's education (if any). Bank statements must show the numeric value of liquid funds available, name of the account holder, date of the statement, and bank letterhead/official stamp. Bank Statements must not be older than 6 months from the time you submit this form. Bank statements should be equal to, at a minimum, the personal contribution amount that you list on the form at the time it is submitted. The amount that you provide on this form should be the amount the student plans to have available at the time they travel to the U.S. to pursue their studies. Please Note: If funds are coming from a family member/relative's business, this will be considered a Sponsoring Agency and should follow the requirements as such.

Government or Sponsoring Agency. If you will receive any monies (scholarships, grants, etc.) in addition to or in place of the funding sources listed above, you must provide the official letter of support/award, along with the amount.

Sections IV & V. Verification & Student Signature

Signatures are required for any person(s) providing funds as well as for the student submitting the application.
